Week of Prayer for Christian Unity – January 18-25

THERE IS ONE BODY AND ONE SPIRIT, JUST AS YOU WERE

CALLED TO THE HOPE OF YOUR CALLING (Ephesians 4:4)

Join Bishop John A. Boissonneau and a wide representation of Christian leaders to pray for the restoration of full visible unity willed by Jesus Christ for the Church. Sunday, January 18th at 4 p.m.

Runnymede United Church, 432 Runnymede Rd, Toronto

This event is jointly organized by the Office for Ecumenical & Interfaith Relations and the GTA Council of Christian Churches.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
There will be a Come and See Discernment weekend retreat at St Augustine's Seminary for men ages 18 and older who are thinking of the Priesthood. It starts on Friday, February 27th at 6:30 pm and ends on Sunday, March 1st at 2 pm. Please refer to the announcement in this bulletin.

We need priests! And each and every one of us should do our part to encourage vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

We should first start with prayer – this is what Jesus asks us to do. In the Gospel of Mathew, we read: “Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.’” (Mathew 9:35-38)

Apart from praying for Vocations, we should also promote it with our words and actions. If you see a young man or a young woman whom you think might be called to be a priest or nun, don't be afraid to approach them and tell them that you think they might have a vocation. The individual might be surprised and taken aback by your words, but I can guarantee that they will think about it for at least a few seconds. And maybe these few seconds will lead to them thinking about it as a possibility that they might be called by the Lord.

Parents should also promote vocations to their children. As a priest, I can truthfully tell you that I have a very happy, joyful and fulfilling life. I know what I have given up, regarding having a wife and children – these are the sacrifices I have made in saying YES to the priesthood. But I have also gained so many graces and blessings that I would not have had if I had chosen married life. Children need to know that Priesthood and the Religious life is something to consider – they should be encouraged to discern if they are called to a religious vocation.

So, let us follow Jesus' call and ask the “Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

BLESSINGS, Fr. Liborio

St Paul tells us that we have been sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be a holy people.

Could it be that you or someone in your family is being called to be a priest, deacon, brother or sister?

Contact Fr. Matthew McCarthy, Vocations Director, ArchToronto

Of course, we all want to receive Jesus in the Eucharist and the other sacraments for our eternal salvation. If you are one of those people who love the Eucharist and want others to have the same love for Jesus in the Eucharist for their eternal salvation, we invite you to join the SERRA CLUB OF NORTH PEEL. Become a promoter of vocations for the priesthood and the religious life, for without priests we are deprived of God's instruments for saving souls. Serra International is a global institution aggregated to the Pontifical Work for Priestly Vocations of the Holy See. Our Patron Saint is St. Junipero Serra. We meet every 4th Saturday at St Anne's Church, Brampton, after the 9:15 am Mass. Need more information?
