Spirings of Hope (Catholic Infertility Lay Organization)

is a space where couples journey together on the challenging path of infertility. These encounters serve as a vessel for a deep renewal in our relationships with our spouses, selves, and God. We are a recognized lay association through the Archdiocese of Toronto who offer prayer and support to those on the journey of infertility. We adhere to the Catholic Church's teaching on family planning including, the area of reproductive technologies. The group meets virtually the second Thursday of each month. Please be advised that you will need to submit a form online including your email for connection with the group. The sessions are free. <https://rhfertilitycare.com/support-group>

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Marriage Sunday is this weekend and the Archdiocese asks us to focus on marriage.

In my 34 years of priesthood, I have seen a big shift regarding marriage. When I was a young priest, it would be common to have one, two, or even three weddings on most Saturdays throughout the year. Now if a parish has 10 to 15 weddings a year, that is considered a lot. In these 34 years of priesthood, I have also seen a shift from couples getting married to just living together. And if couples decide to marry at all (where at least one is a Baptized Catholic), they decide to have their wedding outside the church – either at city hall, a Banquet facility, a Park Pavilion, or on a beach overlooking the sunset in a destination down south, etc.

One can rightly ask, why are couples choosing to live together, or get married outside of the church? I think there are a number of reasons for this trend, and it stems from a lack of knowledge of what Marriage is all about. There is a growing ignorance of the importance of Marriage and why it should be celebrated in the church. In their ignorance many Catholics do not see the importance of what God, in His Church, can provide for a couple in their union of love.

I cannot say everything there is to say about marriage in this short Pastor's Corner but the following words might help clarify the idea for us Catholics.

- ▶All Baptized Catholics who are entering into marriage are obligated to have their marriage celebrated in a Catholic church.
- ▶Even if one's fiancé(e) is a non-Catholic or a non-Christian (Buddhist, Hindu, Muslim, Jewish) they are still obligated to marry in the church.
- ▶If a Catholic decides to marry outside the Church, their marriage is not recognized by the Church, and they are seen as living in sin – and their marriage is exempt from the graces and blessings that come from the Sacrament of Marriage.
- ▶If a Catholic decides to live with their partner and not enter Marriage, they are in fact living in sin.

The phrase living in sin can sound harsh, but this is what Jesus Christ himself states in the Bible. I can understand if a Christian decides to believe that the Church is WRONG on this matter. But how can a believing Christian say that Jesus Christ is WRONG in the words he himself states in the Gospels.

The Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, speaks about the plan of God that a man should not be alone and that a man is to leave his father and mother and cling to a woman in Marriage. Marriage brings about the fruitful ground where children are begotten and raised in an environment of unconditional love.

Couples who enter into Marriage should also know that they give witness to the world of the true meaning of commitment, fidelity, sacrifice, and all that marriage asks of one man and one woman, who decide freely to be as one in their journey of life.

Finally, the Church extends its loving support to those who have lost a spouse or have experienced the pain and suffering of a broken relationship. If you need assistance during these difficult days, please seek out the various programs and resources that the Church provides in our parish and throughout our diocese so that we may accompany you through the healing process.

I wish all married couples God's blessings upon you as you continue to live out your Sacramental Vows.

BLESSINGS, Fr. Liborio

P.S. If any of you are not married in the church, or living together, please do not hesitate to reach out to me so that we can see how we can rectify your situation through the church's guidance. Please don't delay in reaching out to me – I am here to help you.

WORLD DAY OF THE SICK – FEBRUARY 11TH

(Excerpt from Pope Leo XIV's Message for World Day of the Sick 2026)

Let us raise our prayers to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Health of the Sick, asking her to assist all who suffer and are in need of compassion, consolation and a listening ear. Let us seek her intercession with this ancient prayer, that has been invoked in families for those living with illness and pain:

Sweet Mother, do not part from me. Turn not your eyes away from me. Walk with me at every moment and never leave me alone. You who always protect me as a true Mother, obtain for me the blessing of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. R Amen.
