Dear Brothers and Sisters,
This Wednesday we begin our Lenten journey with the celebration of Ash Wednesday.

Although we Catholics are not obligated to attend the Ash Wednesday celebrations (our obligation here in Canada is to attend all Sundays and Christmas Day and New Year's Day), many attend our Ash Wednesday masses so that they can begin their Lenten observance with the sprinkling of ashes on their foreheads.

Ash Wednesday (along with Good Friday) is a day of Fasting and Abstinence. Fasting and Abstinence are considered two forms of official penitential practice. (A third would be the one hour fast before one is to receive communion at mass).

Here is what the Church means by Fasting & Abstinence:

Fasting: The law of fasting requires a Catholic from the age of 18-60 years to reduce the amount of food eaten in the day. The Church defines this as one meal a day, and two smaller meals which if added together would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Such fasting is obligatory on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The fast is broken by eating between meals and by drinks which could be considered food (milk shakes, but not milk).

Alcoholic beverages do not break the fast; however, they seem contrary to the spirit of doing penance.

Abstinence: The law of abstinence requires a Catholic aged 14 years and older to abstain from eating meat on Fridays in honour of the Passion of Jesus on Good Friday.

On the Fridays outside of Lent, if we choose to eat meat, we should substitute another penitential act such as saying an extra prayer for the poor or giving to charity. During Lent abstinence from meat on Fridays is obligatory.

Who are those who are excused from fasting or abstinence? → those outside the age limits, those of unsound mind, the sick/the frail, pregnant or nursing women according to need for meat or nourishment, manual labourers according to need, guests at a meal who cannot excuse themselves without giving great offense or causing enmity, and other situations of moral or physical impossibility to observe the penitential discipline.

I wish you all a blessed Lent... and remember no meat this coming Wednesday and limit your meals so that you can observe the law of abstinence.

See you all at the Sushi bar on Wednesday... ☺

BLESSINGS, Fr. Liborio

P.S. Our Ash Wednesday Masses are at 7:30 am, 9 am and 7pm.
